

Message from Mrs Mead

Just a very short Newsletter this week with a few updates and reminders,

Thank you to all who were able to join us in the church this afternoon for our harvest service and to those who sent in items for the foodbank.

I also want to thank the church community for hosting us and our amazing school staff who worked with the children to produce such lovely singing and poetry reading.

Well done everyone!

Mrs Mead x

Heads Up - Dates For Your Diary

I just have to make a couple of amendments to the dates I sent out on the newsletter next week.

We have been able to secure a visit for Explorers and Pioneers Classes to visit the Box in Plymouth to link in with their topic work. Unfortunately, the Box could only offer us the 8th November, so we have moved our open afternoon for parents to Friday 15th November. More details of the trip to follow.

We will also now be having our open morning for 2025-26 Reception Children on Wednesday 6th November so parents get a more realistic view of what the school is like.

Finally - did you spot the deliberate mistake! Right at the end of the newsletter last week, I put that the Christingle service was on Wednesday 8th December when it is in fact Wednesday 11th December. [I can't read my own writing apparently 😊]

A Little Moan!

I'm sorry to have to say this, but despite the polite request in last week's newsletter, some of you are still picking up and dropping children outside the gate where the yellow zig-zag lines are. This is dangerous for several reasons but mostly because if you park there, it reduces the visibility for children to see and be seen moving to and from cars and the playground.

Therefore, once again I am politely asking you to park away from the yellow lines and walk or allow your children to walk, up or down the road to the gate.

Launceston Carnival

Please see the post on Dojo regarding Launceston Carnival.

It should be a fun night for us to get out in our community and let everyone know about our wonderful school - I hope you can join us!
